Deceptive telemarketing practices and fraud.

My name is John (Pj) Pantaleo host of Pj and Friends www.pjandfriends.com I am also the owner of a company that at the moment is dormant called Premiums for Time.

On 10/26/2011 I received a telemarketing call from 561-672-7309. A lady asked me about a business loan application I applied for. I had not applied for a loan and was alarmed by the call. The lady said she had an email from me asking for the loan. I asked for a copy of the email to be sent to me she said she would. I went on to ask if there was an application or just an email communication she said that there was an application. This alarmed me more as I was afraid my personal information was compromised. I asked to have all that information forwarded to me she said they don't share that information. I then asked for a manager.

A man named Gary Kovner came on the phone to tell me that no application or email had been received that they had purchased a list (would not tell me where they bought the list) had my personal cell number. So this was a COLD CALL with a pitch that I had applied or inquired about a loan. This telemarketing SCAM is fraudulent because they call a lead telling them that they (the lead) had applied for a loan. When in fact they had not – this not only is deceptive but also sets the lead up to wonder if their identity had been stolen.

I have searched www.sunbiz.org and found a few listings for Elite Capital Funding but could not identify which one if any was this company in question.
